NOTICE FROM THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

If you are unable to pay the amount demanded in this notice, and have decreased income or increased expenses due to COVID-19, your landlord will not be able to evict you for this missed payment if you sign and deliver the declaration form included with your notice to your landlord within 15 days, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and other judicial holidays, but you will still owe this money to your landlord. If you do not sign and deliver the declaration within this time period, you may lose the eviction protections available to you. You must return this form to be protected. You should keep a copy or picture of the signed form for your records.

You will still owe this money to your landlord and can be sued for the money, but you cannot be evicted from your home if you comply with these requirements. You should keep careful track of what you have paid and any amount you still owe to protect your rights and avoid future disputes. Failure to respond to this notice may result in an unlawful detainer action (eviction) being filed against you.

For information about legal resources that may be available to you, visit lawhelpca.org.

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that you are justly indebted to the owner of the herein described premises; and notice is hereby given that pursuant to the lease and/or rental agreement under which you hold possession, there is now due, unpaid and delinquent rent in the total sum of:

($ _____). The total amount owing represents rent due for the following period(s):

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE, IF YOU FAIL TO PERFORM OR OTHERWISE COMPLY WITHIN FIFTEEN (15) DAYS as required by this notice, that the undersigned does hereby elect to declare a forfeiture of the subject lease and/or rental agreement and will institute legal proceedings for the unlawful detainer against you to recover possession of the premises plus court costs, attorney fees and PENALTY DAMAGES OF $600.00 due as provided by California law.

Dated this _____ day of _____, 20____.

Owner(s): _____ By: _____ Agent

Pursuant to Section 1785.26 of the California Civil Code, as required by law, you are hereby notified that a negative credit report reflecting on your credit record may be submitted to a credit reporting agency if you fail to fulfill the terms of your credit obligation.

Penal Code Section 594 provides that any person who maliciously damages or destroys the property or another is subject to fine and imprisonment.

DECLARATION OF COVID-19-RELATED FINANCIAL DISTRESS

State law provides eviction protections, but in order to be protected you must (1) Return the declaration of COVID-19-related financial distress hardship declaration within 15 days after receiving any eviction notice, and (2) Pay 25 percent of all rent owed for September 1, 2020 through January 31, 2021 by January 31, 2021.

“Declaration of COVID-19-related financial distress” means the following written statement:

I am currently unable to pay my rent or other financial obligations under the lease in full because of one or more of the following:

1. Loss of income caused by the COVID-19 pandemic.
2. Increased out-of-pocket expenses directly related to performing essential work during the COVID-19 pandemic.
3. Increased expenses directly related to health impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic.
4. Childcare responsibilities or responsibilities to care for an elderly, disabled, or sick family member directly related to the COVID-19 pandemic that limit my ability to earn income.
5. Increased costs for childcare or attending to an elderly, disabled, or sick family member directly related to the COVID-19 pandemic.
6. Other circumstances related to the COVID-19 pandemic that have reduced my income or increased my expenses.

Any public assistance, including unemployment insurance, pandemic unemployment assistance, state disability insurance (SDI), or paid family leave, that I have received since the start of the COVID-19 pandemic does not fully make up for my loss of income and/or increased expenses.
